

Residency Appeal Application Instructions

An appeal will ONLY be accepted from the student and must be submitted through the CSU Residency website. Appeals via email, fax, and U.S. mail will not be accepted.

To submit a residency appeal, please follow the steps below:

- 1) Go to CalState.edu/Residency
- 2) Click on Learn About Appeals to get started
- 3) Once the student meets the criteria for a residency appeal, then the student submits an appeal by clicking on the red button

Submit an Appeal

A student with a documented disability that prohibits the student from submitting an appeal should contact residencyappeals@calstate.edu.

Basis for Appeal

A student, following a final campus decision concerning the student's residence classification or reclassification, may submit an appeal to the Chancellor's Office within 30 calendar days of the issuance of the notification of the final campus decision. The campus decision may be appealed only if at least one of the following applies:

1. The decision was based on:
 - a significant error of fact;
 - a significant procedural error; or
 - an incorrect application of law which, if corrected, would require that the student be reclassified as a resident; and/or,
2. Significant new information, not previously known or available to the student, became available after the date of the campus decision classifying the student as a nonresident and based on the new information, the classification as a nonresident is incorrect.

A student must explain why the appeal meets one or more of the above appeal criteria and provide relevant supporting documentation. For example, a "significant error of fact" could be demonstrated by stating that the campus incorrectly determined that a specific document, such as a driver's license, was untimely and by providing a copy of the document establishing the error. An appeal that only states "a significant error of fact," without supporting documentation will be denied.

Final Determination

The Chancellor's Office appeal decision is final and there is no right to further appeal within the California State University system. A student who wishes to be reconsidered for residence reclassification for any future term, must contact the campus to discuss the proper steps to request a resident reclassification for a future term within campus deadlines.
